FlamencAsian 2026: Tierra Rota, Alma Viva Broken Earth, Living Soul & Fragmentos De Mañana Fragments of Tomorrow

Tierra Rota, Alma Viva is the premiere of Antonio Vargas' latest original dance theatre production by Flamenco Sin Fronteras, Singapore (FSF) - addressing climate change, urban dystopia and hope for the human condition. Fragmentos de Mañana continues this FSF theme with leading Asian flamenco artistes from Singapore, Japan, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Thailand alongside flamenco artistes from Spain performing together in Singapore. BEHIND THE SCENES: FlamencAsian 2026 In Action

RHYTHM ISLAND: La Fiesta 2026

Age is but a number - all made up and ready to dance! Our dancer/volunteer Veron Ng with a senior dancer at La Fiesta 23 Aug 2026, Kebun Bahru Community Club.

Under the direction of Maestro Antonio Vargas (left), rehearsals for Tierra Rota, Alma Viva have been continuous for months at the Geylang studios of Flamenco Sin Fronteras Singapore. The cast of Maestro Vargas' choreography for Tierra Rota, Alma Viva also includes collaborative contemporary dance artists Pang Xin Yi and Gong Wen Xuan. Tierra Rota, Alma Viva is presented by Singapore's FSF and will feature live music performance by Chen Po Yin (Taiwan, vocals), Lalit Kumar (Singapore, percussion) and José Ismael Sierra (Spain, guitar).

Asian flamenco talents will come together in Singapore in the FlamencAsian 2026 production Fragmentos De Mañana to create a united showcase of music and dance, by: Lalita Jantaro & Ballet Flamenco Thailand (Thailand), Mariko Drayton, Escencia Flamenca HK (Hong Kong), Lu Lee (Taiwan), Nobuyoshi Nakane (Japan/Singapore), Zhao Zhen & Mustafa (China), Yong Kai Lin, Lalit Kumar, Ren Yi & Chang Hsiao Min (Singapore).

The earth cracks. The body answers.
